New MIRECC Leadership Roles for Kauth and Kunik

Dr. Greer Sullivan, South Central MIRECC Director, recently announced two changes in MIRECC leadership. Effective immediately, Mark Kunik, M.D., MPH, joins the MIRECC leadership as Associate Director for Research Training. Currently, Dr. Kunik is Co-Director of the VA-MIRECC Special Fellowship Program and Team Leader for the Dementia Research Team. He also coordinates a program to identify and engage psychiatry residents in VA research careers early in their training. Dr. Kunik is located at the Michael E. DeBakey VA Medical Center, Houston, TX, and Baylor College of Medicine.

Dr. Sullivan also announced that Michael Kauth, Ph.D., will move from Associate Director for Education to Co-Director, effective immediately. During Dr. Sullivan's sabbatical, Dr. Kauth served as Acting Director of the South Central MIRECC. In addition to new administrative duties, he will continue to oversee MIRECC education programs. Dr. Kauth is located at the New Orleans VA Medical Center and Tulane School of Medicine.

Congratulations to Drs. Kunik and Kauth on their new titles and responsibilities with the MIRECC.
